

RIDER:

PENELOPE P. MILLER grew up as a horse-crazy kid on her parents' farm in Ocala, Florida, and not much has changed since then. She is now the Senior Manager of Digital Media at America's Best Racing, and spends her weekends travelling to racetracks across the nation to photograph and write about some of the sports biggest events. Before that, she worked on farms from Kentucky to Australia, and worked for six years at Tampa Bay Downs as the Horsemen's Liaison.

When she's not in an airplane or the office, Penelope can be found riding at Riverdale Stables in the Bronx or flying through the air at Trapeze School New York.
