

RIDER:

SHARON DOMINGUEZ grew up with horses. Her father, Robert Wyatt, still trains Standardbreds in Harrington, Delaware, and her mother has always ridden. Sharon has galloped for trainers Randy Nunley, Bessie Gruwell, Hammy Smith, Jonathan Sheppard and Graham Motion. After graduating from the University of Delaware with a degree in Advertising & Graphic Design, she met her future husband, Ramon Dominguez, at Delaware Park. Sharon stopped riding in 2003 and now lives in Floral Park, New York with Ramon and their sons Alex and Matthew, who will be at Plantation Field to cheer her on.

“I think this is a really great cause, it’s important to support aftercare. I have been getting on Graham Motion’s pony in the morning and jogging a few racehorses. I’ve also been taking some jump lessons up in here in Saratoga to brush up. I have done this before, but it’s been about 18 or so years.”

Sharon will wear the silks of her sponsors, St. Elias Stable.
